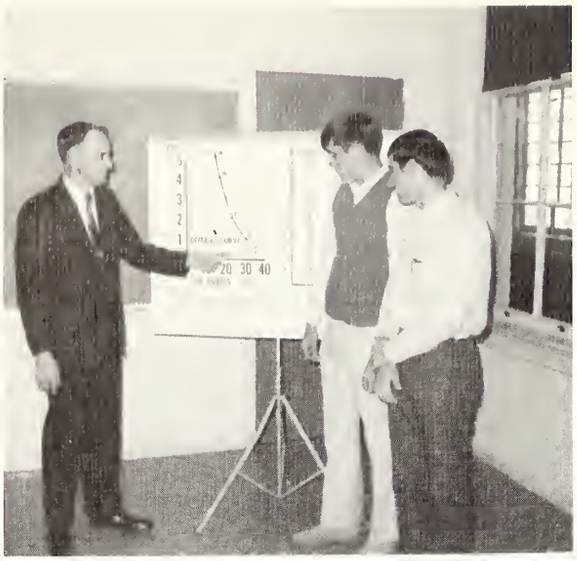

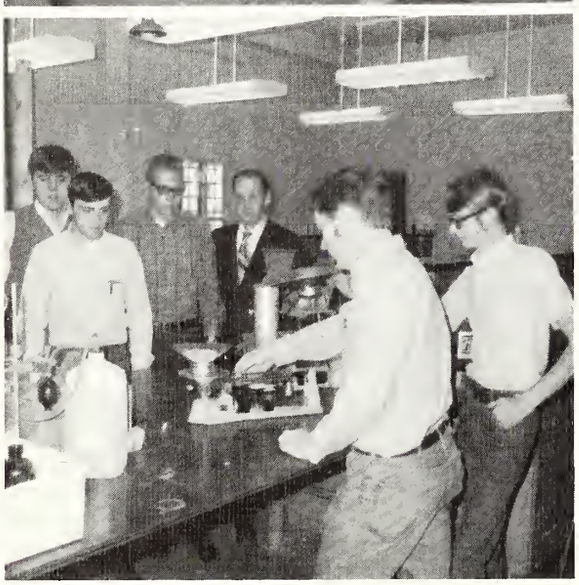

Graphically speaking, we have Mr. Jerald Binkley, head of Vo-Tech.'s Agriculture Department, teaching students Stan Seaman and Jim Smith. Weighing the nitrates, are also Terry Larson, Bruce Betzold, and Jim Teirnan.

Also weighing (this year's crop?) are Agriculture instructor, Tom Hainline, and Ag. students, Roger Gruner, and Terry Larson.

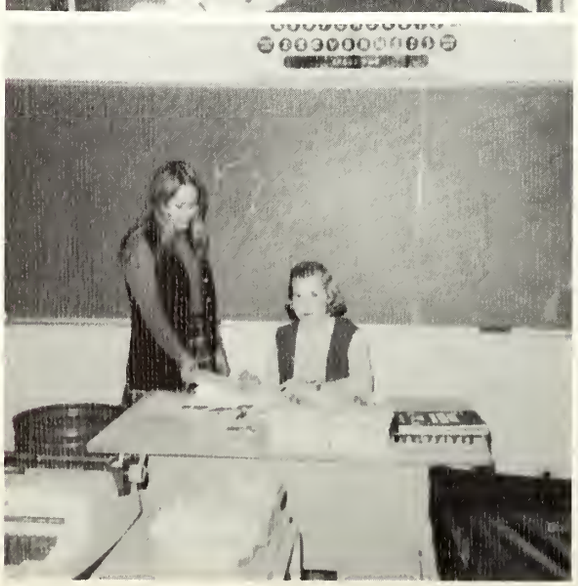
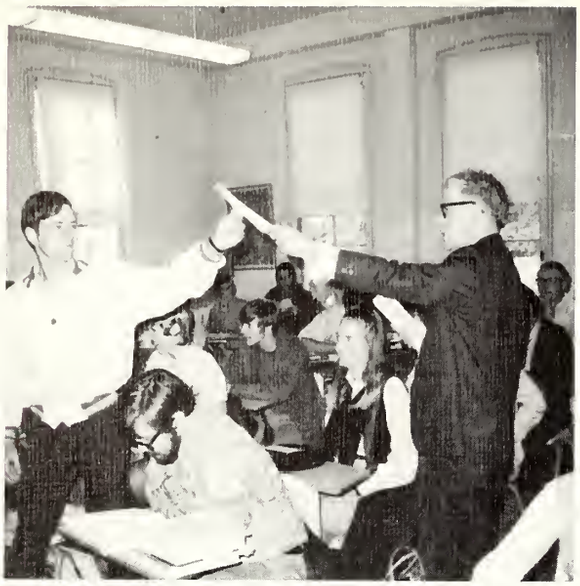
Mr. Alvin Wilcox teaches Circuit Fundamentals class. Here he explains the use of the oscilloscope and audio generator to students. Mr. Wilcox, Larry Williams, Tim Fields, Howard Philips, Tom Schooler, and John Smith.

Mrs. Martha Moore teaching typing students the magic touch. Students are Brenda Collier, Leslie Cunningham, Judy Meeker, Darlene Olson, and Charlene Daniels.



Induction to P.E.--Mr. Ed Evemeyer and draftees. Above, Floyd Scott wonders what's next. Upper right, Is he showing inductees to the barracks? Students involved are Steve Maddox, Neil Phelps, Mike Gray, Mike Shields, Floyd Scott, and Chuck Mullins. Right, Point of interest--Mr. Evemeyer and Mullins, Day, Shields, and Louis Hinkle.

Electronic Ingenuity--Below, Mr. Marion Blackburn of Vo-Tech teaches it to Dennis Seymour and David Lage.



SINister Hawthorne Quiz--Effects of quiz on the taker. Mr. Charles Howe's American Literature students, William Kegley reaches for a higher grade. Linda McDaniel hopes that charm helps. Eddie Hamilton hopes he has ''bearded the lion''. Dave Fagan keeps it at arms length. Other students involved are Tim Wilson, Gary Benson, Alice Carlson, Bernard Jeffers, Jim Wilkins, George Van Horn, Steve Hampel, Deborah Nicholson, and Bob Turner.

Mathematical Magic--Mr. Ronald Mickelson is the magician. John Morganroth even hugs his books. In pictures above, getting pointers from Mr. Mickelson are also Barb Conger and Ken Averacher. Below, John Chu, Jim Lopinski, and Steve Mabry join in on the computations. Can they be washing clothes in a laundromat? And setting up a replica of a parade down State Street? You guess!

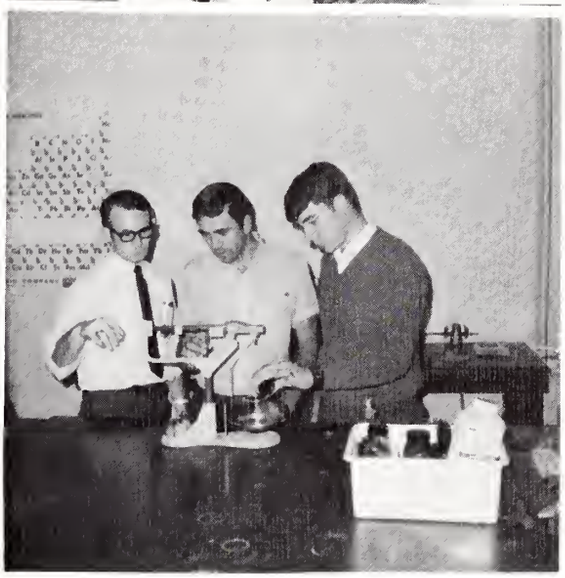
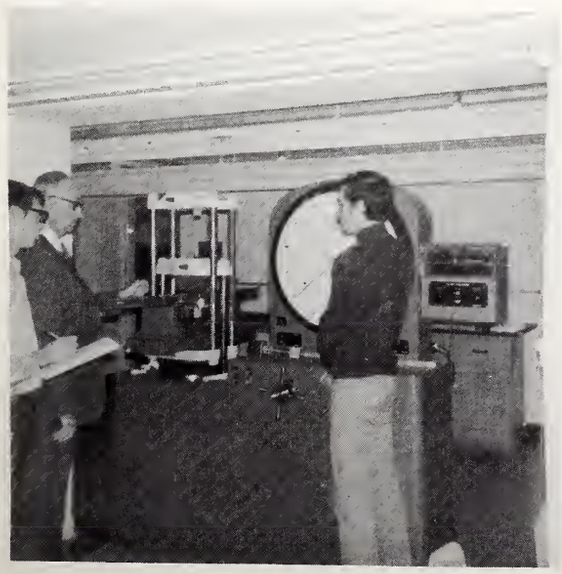
Push-ups and Picture Books--P.E.'s a "knessy" job with Miss Barbara Todd. Students are Candy Young, Sherri Taylor, and Patti Vogel.

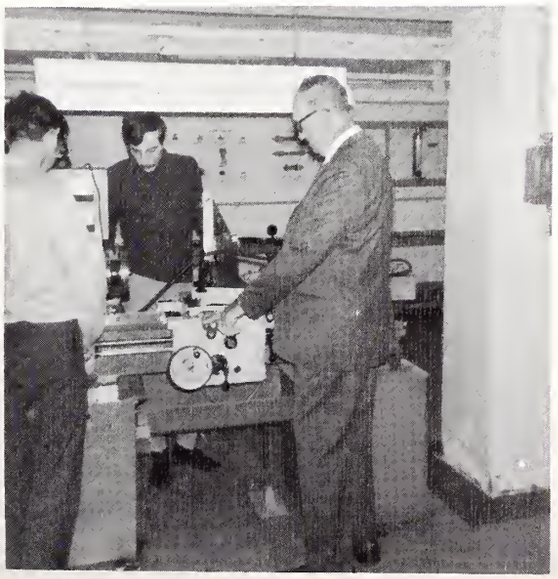
Boxer Rebellion--About to be K.O.'ed is Miss Andrea Baker, P.E. instructor. Maybe she has been too per-mitt-ive; at least, Paula Wolfe, Brenda Armantrout, Karen Bell, and Claudia Albrecht are ganging-up on her.

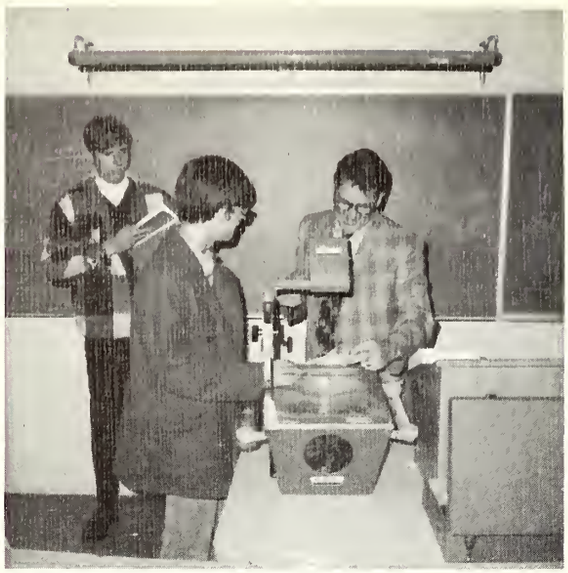
Weighty Problem--Mr. Ronald Stickler, Agriculture instructor, uses three pairs of students to pound out an answer. Students are John Van Allen, Bryon Morgan, Kenny Hambleton, Jerry Pugh, Charles Kenton, and William Morefield.



Accurate Measurements--Mr. Dale Cronkhite and Mechanical Technology students--Joseph King and Michael Starr--test defection of a steel beam and run a machinability measurement of a lathe.





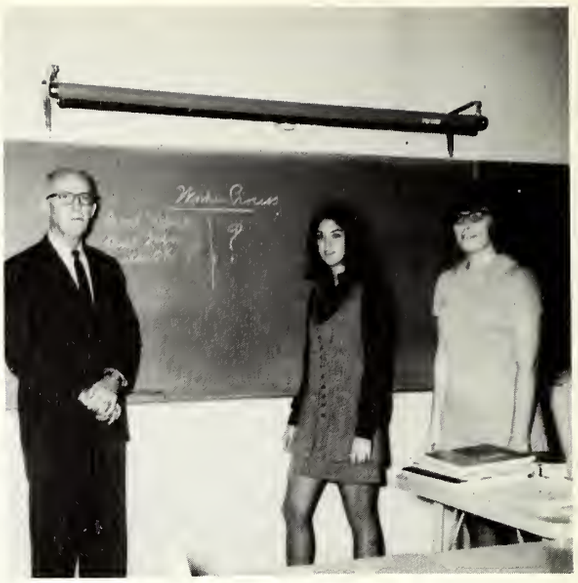


Projecting an Account--Accounting and History teacher, Mr. Robert Britton demonstrates for Stanley Eighner and Randall Richter.

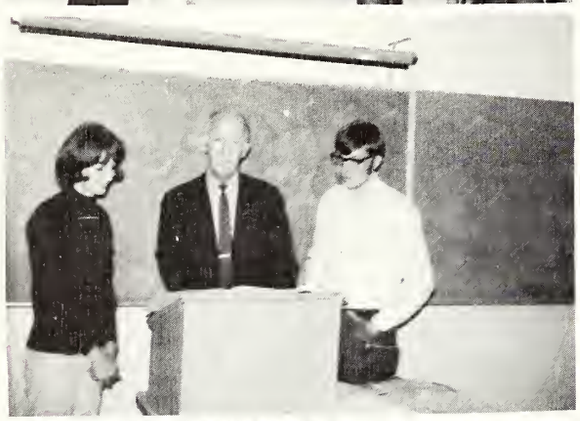
Police Science--Mr. James Kelsner demonstrates First Aid. In other two pictures, Mr. John Girton, police science instructor, joins Mr. Kelsner and students, Maggy Leverich, Robert Jackson, and Philip Parker.

Podium Pose and Aisle Assistance--Mr. Craig Chambers, History instructor, with students: Stanley Janas, Jeanne Hunt, Cynthia Balding, Brenda Casey, and John Sheehan

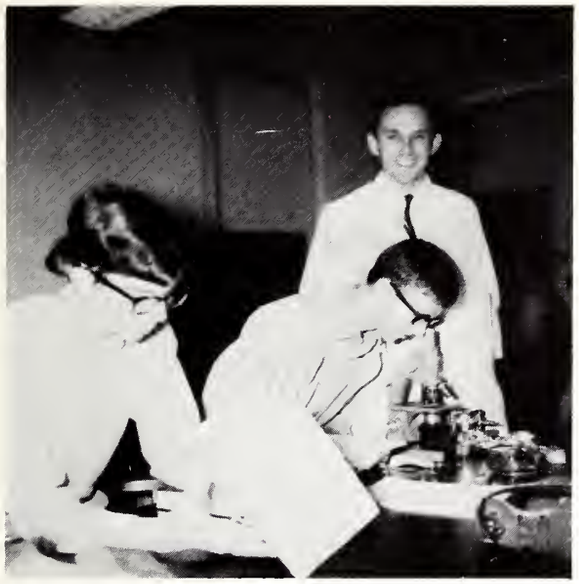
Disc Jockey and Music Devotees--Mr. Richard Cheney, in charge of the Audi-Visual department, helps eager students choose the next platter.



Blackboard Ledgers--Although the account is questionable, it's on the black. Accounting instructor, Francis Anderson, and his bookkeepers--Janet Gillenwater, Glenda Huffman, Mary Lindsey, Jim Lopinski, Charles Wood, Richard Cowan, Mary Deck, Tim Hanna, and John Barr.



Lonely Lecturer--No, there are students out there somewhere, as Mr. Gerald O'Bryan, Vo-Tech instructor, lectures students and gives them the Business.



THE AMAZING SCIENCE CLASSES OF MR. JOHN HOAGLAND - Have they produced a Frankenstein in the lab that Claire Fecker has just noticed, or is she remembering how cells looked under the microscope, or is she worried about the plants breathing in the corner?

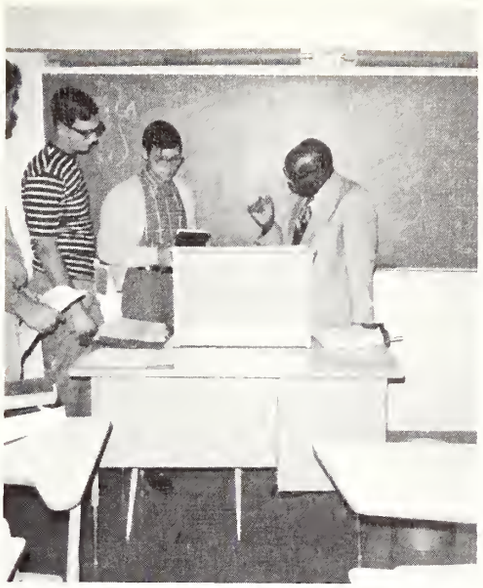
Besides Claire, Mr. Hoagland's students are Kenneth Mills, Marc Pritchard, David McKenzie, Richard Crager, Debra Lane, and Paul Kieffer.

Mr. Burton with three students, Evan Price, Bill Starkey, and Wayne Huchel.

Mr. Burton with Jim Bleavins writing Tech Reports.

Mr. Eldred with students discussing Sociology. Left to right, Martha Coffman, Rhonda Shanle, Mr. Eldred, Debbie Clarkson, Phyllis Sprouls, and Paula Ray.

Mr. Eldred must be humorous. Rhonda Shanle, Marty Coffman, Bob Turner, Phyllis Sprouls and Debbie Clarkson.



Out of 6 students there are always 2 individualists, who just won't "back" the discussion. Economics Instructor Tim Mahoney and John Garner, Herman Wyatt, Dave Cunningham, Mary Morrison, and Steve Young.

Mr. Smith explaining how to give a speech. Students Frank Mullholland, Mark Zotz, and Wesley Grimes.

Mr. Smith's "Family" Class? Cathy and Reva Omahen, and Dennis and David Garner.

Mrs. Wingo petting her mummy's arm Diane Falconio and Olivia Olmstead, also have glances of affection.

Mrs. Wingo and Diane and Olivia find that such affection goes deep into the heart.

Beauty and Efficiency--Cathy Hays files and takes shorthand for Mrs. Maryln Satterwhite.

Putting a little Scotch into an English class, Mrs. Dora Read points to--can it be the birthplace of Bobbie Burns?--for Instructor Alice Morrison and student Debbie Pitlik.

Bette Schuster holds the interest of "small fry" of Child Development with a jigsaw puzzle.

Below, Instructor Vera Diffenderfer listens to student speaker, Judy Misch, and also has an after-class discussion with Debbie Finley and Candy Young about Social Studies.

Instructor Alvin Wilcox gives current data to Electronic Technology students, James Yanko, Steve Leverich, and Gary Dixson.

FALL MIXER 1970

Steve Van Buren and a friend are greeting the students as they come to hear the music of the Catskills. The students seem to be swinging to the music as shown by Debbie Conard and Brenda Hinton upper left. Refreshments are always on hand when people work up a thirst as did Cathy and Mike Nolan and Maggie Leverich. It seems as if Nancy Megginson and Jim Emery are really doing their thing to the beat of the music as seen in the lower left pictures. All in all, the dance appealed in some way to everyone that was there.

ASTRA PICNIC

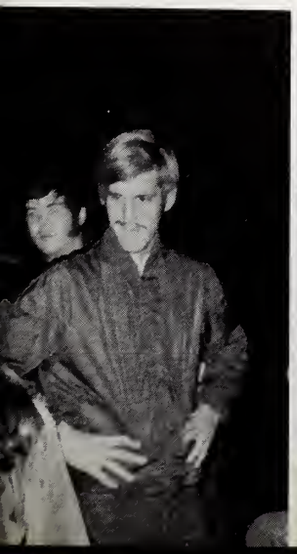
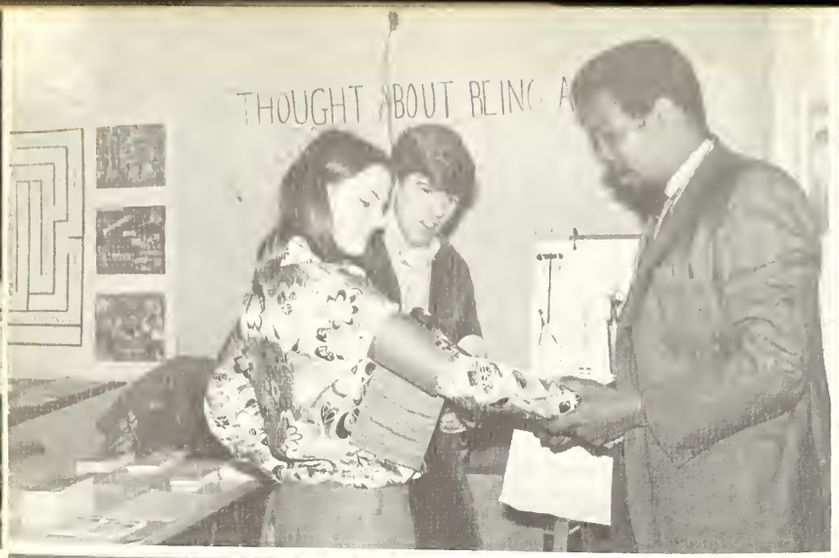
At the podium are Dr. Alan Taylor, speaker; H. Henderson, class president; and President Mary Miller. Graduates, V. Serpinas, M. Fields, W. Blankenship, H. Henderson, W. Coe, A. Condiff, R. Packs, B. Prouty, B. Silagy, B. Sims; seated, D. Cawthon, B. Elliott, J. Shaeffar, L. Montgomery, K. Meyer, R. Kinney.

Below, Mrs. R. Garrettson serves guests at the reception. Also shown are instructors Mrs. Joyce Barr, Mrs. Joyan Fetters and Mrs. Ester Risher.

ASTRA AND CIRCLE K PICNIC

Doug Reder and Peggy Lenover in the upper left picture are trying to get a football game started. Doing your own thing was the best part of any picnic as seen in the picture middle right with Keith Boaz and Dave Kinnard. Food was plenty and voices hearty as Astra and Circle K joined around the bonfire and sang campfire songs. Faculty Sponsors pictured are Mr. James Norman, Mrs. Annabelle Neel, and Miss Marjorie Holmes.





MEDICAL CAREERS

On Medical Careers Day Demonstrations were given of taking blood pressure by the American Medical Society, of pharmacy, of physical therapy, of psychology, of rehabilitation, and of veterinary medicine.

SHARED JOURNEY

Shared Journey is a self-help community that wants to grow not only as students, but also as human beings. Pictured are; Miss Anne Marie Bieniewski, sponsor, and Sheryl Rebmann standing. Seated are Ed Howe, Reed Latoz, Chris Wilson, Jayne Kietzman, and Jan Hubbard.

This is the largest manufacturing complex in the world wide operations of Hyster Co. Today, Danville is the headquarters of the company's Industrial Truck Operations. The Industrial Truck Manufacturing Operation on East Voorhees St. contains approximately 800,000 square feet of office and manufacturing space. The original plant on Myers St. is now the company-wide Parts Depot, containing more than 150,000 square feet.
